M. P. Church Notes

REV. F. L. CRANDELL, Pastor.
The series of sermons given on Evolution from the Bible standpoint were finished Sunday evening. All those who have followed these sermons closely have had their faith strengthened in the word of God and the words: "We Will Stand by the Bible" can be heard from all sides. Next Sunday evening another series of sermon-lectures on "So-called Mistakes and Contradictions of the Bible" will be started. Sunday evening the subject will be "Jonah and the Whale."

The L. A. S met at the home of Mrs. Wm. Hyde last week, all reporting a pleasant and profitable time. This week they meet with Mrs. Eli Silverthorn.

The choir is putting forth every effort for the success of their story in song to be given Easter Sunday.

The prayer meetings are still flourishing and those attending are reporting benefit beyond their expectations.

The members of the church and those interested are expected to attend regular business meeting Monday evening April 2nd. All secretaries have reports in readiness.

Last, but not least is our Sunday school. One hundred and twenty-three being present last Sunday which is certainly speaking well for the young people of the church.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

J. H. Rheingans, Pastor
Palm Sunday, which is next Sunday, commemorates Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem. The account is found in all four gospels. See Luke 19:38. Preaching service at 10 standard.

Lesson in the Bible school: "Jesus Gives Sight to the Blind." Jno. 9:1-38. Session 11:15. Decision day next Sunday.

Christian Endeavor at 6. Topic: "Morning Prayer." Ps. 3-8. Consecration meeting. Mildred Ruh, Leader.

Evening service at 7. Topic: "Flye Great Thinks:—The Greatest Thing, the Greatest Work, the Greatest Evil, the Greatest Remedy, the Greatest Institution."

Thanks for the splendid attendance at all services last Sunday.

The annual meeting of the church will be held Tuesday, April 10, instead of April 3.

M. E. Church Notes.

WALDREN GEACH, PASTOR
R. M. JOHNSON, SUPT.

The services held in Central hall were well attended last Sunday. Everyone was pleased with the arrangement of the hall. The attendance all day was very good, Sunday school numbering 135.

Don't forget to be with us next Sunday both morning and night.

MECHANIC ST. CHURCH OF CHRIST
Sunday, April 1.

Morning service 10:30. Elder McCall will have charge of the service.

Sunday school 11:30. Every teacher and scholar present. The school is growing nicely. Keep smiling.

Welcome to all.
Eldred Charles, Minister.

The High School Tattler

Joseph Cameron and Raymond Wilks, Editors

GRADE NOTES

Mr. Blackney visited school Monday. Frederick Cork, of Almont, visited the first grade Monday.

The third grade has a new Easter border in their room and the children have staged a party for Friday afternoon.

The fourth grade has the flag this week. They were entertained by the third grade Friday afternoon in the third grade room.

The fifth graders are learning Tennyson's "Break, Break, Break."

The seventh grade is to give a program Friday afternoon.

The bird calendar shows that fourteen different kinds of birds have come back from the south.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Everyone is looking forward to vacation next week.

The Modern History class enjoyed an examination Monday.

The English X classes are writing character sketches of the priciple characters of the play, "Julius Caesar."

Mr. Drouyor is attending the School Master's meeting in Ann Arbor this week.

Marie Drouyor, Merle Heath and Miss Dunstan, of Ypsilanti, visited High School Monday afternoon.

No one will be surprised if Roy leaves for Ypsilanti Saturday morning.

The high room missed Mr. Drouyor's customary Thursday morning talk this week.

The Juniors are busy practicing their play "Mr. Kelly From Kalamazoo." Watch for the date. Its worth while seeing.

Stewart Weeks, of Richmond, Arthur Clyne, Maurice Merrill and Clarence Umphrey, of Ypsilanti, visited school Monday.

A base ball meeting is to be held and officers elected the next week of school. Everyone is looking forward to a class game between the Freshmen and Seniors and the Sophomores and Seniors.

Affable Waiter, (handling soup)—"Looks like rain."
Cantankerous Old Gent—It does; but it smells like soup."

Mr. Johnson's rhetorical division is planning a program for Friday afternoon. Everyone invited.

Everyone is working hard for the spring athletic meet.

Teacher—"Well, what do you think of the present war? When is it going to end?" Student—

"Of accurate knowledge, I have none. But my wife's sister's brother-in-law's son

Knows a policeman, who on his best Met a woman in Downing street.

Whose brother says he has a friend Who says he knows when the war will end."

Minstrels.

Nothing definite can be stated at out the date of the coming minstrels owing to the Junior class play and other festivities which are at last under way. The Junior class employs six of the talent who feature in the minstrels and practice of the two events so conflicts with this and other duties that a postponement is felt necessary.

The twenty boys who have been given parts are enthusiastic over the possibilities and by the time of presentation will no doubt be in readiness to render the act in proper form.

The Scotch Will Celebrate.

At the meeting of the Caledonian Association held in the Expositor office last Monday night it was unanimously decided to hold another big celebration this year, the date of which will be announced later.

Besides the members of the association there were a number of business men present and each was called upon to express his opinion regarding the celebration, and every one was heartily in favor of it.

There were four members of the amusement committee of the Citizens' Improvement Club present and they voted to endorse the celebration, and it is an assured fact that the business men will unite with the association in making the celebration a success.

Another thing that was voted on and carried was the matter of making Caledonian Day a yearly event for the city.

The old officers were re-elected for the ensuing year:—

President—Wm. H. Learmont
Secretary—Chas. S. Brown
Treasurer—Fred Taylor
Committees will be appointed later and everybody is invited to start boosting now for the big celebration.
